Come, lose yourself in the buzz – Broad Ripple welcomes you with open arms and a bohemian heart.

NORTH CENTRAL

North Central isn't just a neighborhood; it's a haven for urban convenience with a charming suburban soul. Nestled just north of downtown Indianapolis, a mere 4 miles away, it bridges the gap between city buzz and family-friendly comfort. Picture tree-lined streets graced with stately homes, sidewalks bustling with friendly faces, and the reassuring presence of top-rated schools around every corner. This is where life unfolds at a gentle pace, yet the spirit of the Indy 500 shimmers just beyond the horizon.

North Central's cultural tapestry is woven with threads of history and modern vibrancy. Immerse yourself in the stories of Hoosier heroes at the Indiana World War Memorial, a solemn yet awe-inspiring testament to American sacrifice. Or, delve into the artistic spirit at the Indianapolis Art Center, where world-class exhibits and immersive workshops ignite the creative spark.

NORTH CENTRAL THINGS TO DO

Community spirit thrives in North Central. Neighborly greetings echo through the air, parks like Butler Field host lively picnics and soccer games, and annual events like the Fall Festival bring the neighborhood together in laughter and cheer. Whether you're joining a book club at the charming Broad Ripple Library or volunteering at the Indianapolis Children's Museum, you'll find a warm welcome and a sense of belonging waiting for you.

Families find peace of mind in North Central, thanks to its exceptional public schools. Butler University Magnet High School and Shortridge Academy consistently rank among the best in the city, ensuring your children receive a top-notch education. Beyond academics, extracurricular opportunities abound, from robotics clubs to theatre productions, nurturing well-rounded young minds.

No craving goes unsatisfied in North Central. Indulge in classic Hoosier comfort food at The Red Lion Tavern, a local institution for juicy burgers and friendly service. Or, embark on a global culinary adventure with authentic Thai at Siam Square or mouthwatering Italian at Mama Tried. From cozy brunch spots to trendy craft breweries, North Central's culinary scene caters to every appetite and mood.

Step back in time on North Central's historic streets, where stately Tudor homes whisper tales of a bygone era. Explore the opulent grounds of the Governor's Residence, a testament to Indiana's political heritage. Or, soak up the serenity of the Garfield Park Conservatory, a verdant oasis showcasing colorful flora and serene water features.

No matter your life stage or preferences, North Central holds a haven for you. Young professionals find a friendly, walkable community where they can pursue their careers and connect with like-minded souls. Families flourish in a safe, nurturing environment with exceptional schools and abundant green spaces. Retirees discover a welcoming atmosphere with convenient amenities and cultural enrichment at their fingertips.

So, ditch the cookie-cutter suburbs and embrace the warm embrace of North Central. Here, life unfolds at its own pace, punctuated by a friendly smile, a delicious bite, and the quiet knowledge that you belong. Come explore, discover, and make North Central your Hoosier haven – it's more than just a neighborhood; it's a feeling of home.

DELAWARE TRAILS

Wake up to the symphony of birdsong, greet the day with a run along the White River Greenway, and let your worries melt away in the vast embrace of Eagle Creek Park. Delaware Trails boasts miles of nature trails, sparkling lakes, and lush green spaces, all inviting you to explore, exercise, and simply connect with the calming power of nature. Kayak on the river, cast a line for walleye or bass, or pack a picnic and lose yourself in the tranquility of the woods. This isn't just a neighborhood; it's your personal nature sanctuary.

More than just a green playground, Delaware Trails pulses with a vibrant community spirit. Neighbors gather at the community pool for barbecues and laughter, kids play together in the expansive parks, and friendly greetings fill the air on dog walks along the White River Greenway. Join the annual Fall Festival, volunteer at the community garden, or simply strike up a conversation with your friendly neighbors – belonging comes naturally in this tight-knit community.

DELAWARE TRAILS THINGS TO DO

Families can rest assured knowing their children receive an exceptional education in Delaware Trails. Carmel Clay Schools consistently rank among the best in the nation, offering challenging curriculums, state-of-the-art facilities, and dedicated teachers who nurture young minds. Beyond academics, students thrive in a supportive environment with ample opportunities for extracurricular activities, fostering well-rounded individuals ready to conquer the world.

While the allure of nature may beckon, Delaware Trails doesn't skimp on convenience. Local stores like Kroger and CVS Pharmacy cater to your everyday needs, while charming cafes and restaurants dish up delicious delights. Grab a latte at Bean Sprout Coffee, savor mouthwatering pizza at 850° Wood Fired Pizza, or indulge in a casual burger at The Friendly Hoosier. You'll discover hidden culinary gems tucked away within the neighborhood, each offering a unique taste and a warm atmosphere.

Delaware Trails isn't just about green spaces; it's also sprinkled with landmarks that spark curiosity and ignite the imagination. Visit the fascinating Conner Prairie living history museum for a glimpse into Indiana's pioneer past, or explore the interactive exhibits at the Children's Museum at The Riley Park at White River, just a stone's throw away. History and family fun merge seamlessly in this vibrant neighborhood.

Despite its nature-centric character, Delaware Trails doesn't exist in a vacuum. Downtown Indianapolis' bustling energy is a mere 15-minute drive away, offering access to world-class museums, thrilling sporting events, and a diverse culinary scene. Catch a Colts game at Lucas Oil Stadium, discover hidden treasures at the Indianapolis Arts Center, or explore the vibrant Broad Ripple Village – the possibilities are endless.

WYNNEDALE

Imagine a haven where vintage charm dances with modern convenience, where friendly faces greet you on sidewalks lined with brick bungalows, and where history whispers from every corner. Nestled just 3 miles east of downtown Indianapolis, Wynnedale isn't just a neighborhood; it's a tapestry woven with stories of the past, alive with the vibrancy of the present, and promising a warm welcome for those seeking a slice of Hoosier heart.

Wynnedale is a living, breathing museum. Stroll down streets lined with historic Craftsman and Tudor homes, each whispering tales of families and lives lived generations past. Admire the architectural gems of the Wynnedale Historic District, where ornate details and charming porches transport you to a bygone era. But beneath the vintage veneer, a modern beat pulses. Local shops hum with activity, trendy cafes tempt with handcrafted brews, and the Wynnedale Park Community Center buzzes with laughter and community events.

WYNNEDALE

THINGS TO DO

Wynnedale's magic lies in its tight-knit community. Neighbors gather at the Farmers Market for fresh produce and friendly banter, families picnic in the shade of towering trees at Wynnedale Park, and block parties erupt with the aroma of grilled ribs and the sounds of joyous laughter. This neighborhood embraces newcomers with open arms, making you feel like you belong from the moment you arrive.

Families find peace of mind in Wynnedale's top-rated IPS Public Schools. IPS School #66 and IPS School #86 consistently rank among the best in the city, offering excellent curriculums, dedicated teachers, and a supportive environment where children flourish. Beyond academics, extracurricular activities abound, from robotics clubs to theatre productions, ensuring your child's potential blossoms amidst the warmth of this vibrant community.

Life in Wynnedale is infused with delicious convenience. Grab a gourmet coffee and flaky croissant at The Flying Cupcake, savor mouthwatering pizza at Bruno's Italian Grill, or indulge in a classic diner breakfast at The Waffle House. Don't be fooled by the vintage charm; Wynnedale offers diverse culinary delights within its cozy confines. And when it comes to everyday needs, Kroger, CVS Pharmacy, and a plethora of local shops ensure you'll never be caught off guard.

Wynndale is your gateway to the best of Indianapolis. Just minutes away, vibrant Broad Ripple beckons with its eclectic shops and live music scene. Sports fans can catch a Colts game at Lucas Oil Stadium, and history buffs can delve into the stories at the Indiana World War Memorial. Wynnedale offers the quiet charm of a neighborhood with the big-city energy just a stone's throw away.

Whether you're a couple seeking a charming starter home, a young family desiring a safe and nurturing environment, or a retiree yearning for friendly faces and historical walks, Wynnedale whispers a welcome. Here, life unfolds at a relaxed pace, punctuated by the chirp of birds, the scent of freshly baked bread, and the comforting knowledge that you belong. Come discover your haven in Wynnedale, where vintage charm meets modern vibrancy, and community spirit paints every corner with warmth.

An aerial photograph of a large, circular plaza in a city. The plaza features a central fountain with a tiered, shell-like structure and a large, light-colored circular area. The fountain is surrounded by a wide, paved walkway. The plaza is bordered by a circular road with multiple lanes, and several cars are visible on the road. The surrounding city buildings are visible, including a large, multi-story building on the right and a church with a steeple on the top right. The overall scene is a busy urban environment.

20 | COST OF LIVING

Moving to a new city shouldn't mean breaking the bank. That's where Indianapolis shines. Compared to national averages, this vibrant Hoosier hub offers a comfortable lifestyle at a significantly lower cost, making your paycheck stretch further and leaving more room for fun and adventure. Let's dive into the specifics of living comfortably on an Indianapolis budget:

Indianapolis boasts a housing market for every taste and budget. Whether you dream of owning a charming bungalow or renting a modern apartment, you'll find it here at a fraction of the cost compared to coastal cities. The median home price in Indianapolis hovers around $347,000, making it significantly more affordable than the national average of $407,600. And renters rejoice! The median rent in Indy lands at $1,135, a steal compared to the national average of $1,329.

Indianapolis is home to some of the nation's top-rated healthcare institutions, like IU Health Methodist Hospital and Riley Hospital for Children. But getting top-notch care doesn't mean top-dollar bills. Healthcare costs in Indy are consistently lower than the national average, with doctor visits, medications, and procedures all coming in at a more budget-friendly price.

Let's look at the numbers!

Cost of Living in Indianapolis, IN	Compared to State Average	Compared to National Average
Housing (Buy and Rent)	3% higher	17% lower
Utilities (Monthly)	3% lower	7% higher
Food	2% higher	2% lower
Healthcare	11% lower	12% lower
Transportation	3% lower	6% lower
Goods & Services	2% higher	4% lower

Average Monthly Rent	Home Price	Mortgage Rate
$1,193	$346,964	5.24%

Indianapolis' cost of living benefits extend beyond mere numbers. With lower housing costs, residents can choose neighborhoods with walkable streets, charming cafes, and green spaces right outside their doorsteps. This translates to a better quality of life, where you can spend less on housing and more on experiences, community, and the things that truly matter.

Indianapolis offers a compelling proposition: a vibrant, welcoming city with a significantly lower cost of living compared to larger metropolises. From affordable housing and healthcare to budget-friendly groceries and entertainment, Indy lets you live comfortably, pursue your passions, and build a fulfilling life without breaking the bank. So, pack your bags, Hoosier hospitality awaits!

23 | JOB MARKET

1:30 Immerse Yourself in Newfields

(Indianapolis Museum of Art)

4000 Michigan Road, Indianapolis, Indiana 46208

You might like getting up close to masterpieces by artists like Rembrandt and Turner, Cezanne and Picasso, O'Keeffe and Hopper, Calder and Lichtenstein and LeWitt and Sherman. You might become curious to see what is considered the most comprehensive collection of Neo-Impressionist paintings in North America. You may linger near major works of Abstract Expressionism, Minimalism, Pop Art, light- and video-based works, and contemporary design. Or possibly you'll just decide to tour the planet, viewing galleries of art from Asia, ancient Greece, South America and beyond.

3-5pm Learn about Kurt Vonnegut Museum and Library

543 Indiana Ave, Indianapolis, IN 46202

One for the literature lovers, this underrated attraction just around the corner from the Canal Walk dives into the life, work, and times of one of America's finest satirical authors. Even if you're not an avid fan of the man, the Kurt Vonnegut Museum and Library is still well worth a visit for its insightful collection of memorabilia and personal items — all best appreciated with an expert-led guided tour of the old building.

Treat Yourself to Cake Bake Shop before Dinner

1615 Carrollton Ave, Indianapolis, IN 46220

Enjoy a cup of afternoon tea and a slice of cake at one of the most Instagrammable places in Indianapolis. The Cake Bake Shop serves elegant cakes, pies, and pastries, as well as a full menu with salads, sandwiches, burgers with pomme frites, crab cakes, and a variety of coffee and tea options. The Carmel location, decked out like a palace with all-white everything and chandeliers hanging from the ceiling, is great for a special occasion or just an afternoon pick-me-up. Snacking like royalty makes the price tag all worth it.

7pm Dinner Reservations at Chef Oya's The Trap

3355 N Keystone Ave, Indianapolis, IN 46218

Chef Oya Woodruff offers items like loaded crab legs, shrimp, lobster tail, salmon, and snow crab, all topped with your choice of her famous flavored “buttah,” along with sides like broccoli, potatoes, corn, and boiled eggs. The butter, in flavors like OG herb garlic, yaad jerk, and vegan citrus chive, is rich and flavorful, especially drizzled over your entire tray of food where it combined with the seasoning on each dish to enhance the experience. But the Trap is more than great seafood.

9-10am City Central Eating at Garden Table

342 Massachusetts Ave # 100, Indianapolis, IN 46204

The Garden Table is a farm-to-table specialist serving inventive New American fare with fresh pressed juices. The Broad Ripple and Mass Ave locations have modern rustic interiors bathed in natural light, and the food is creative and seasonally influenced. Both locations close at 3pm.

10-1pm Appreciate Native American History at Eiteljorg Museum

500 W Washington St, Indianapolis, IN 46204

A must-see Indianapolis museum, the Eiteljorg features exhibits and Western art that tell the story of American Indians. The extensive collection of Native American artwork and artifacts is considered to be the best in the world.

In addition to the permanent collection, the museum also displays rotating exhibits and hosts lectures.

1pm Lunch at Bluebeard
